

Please don't let the National Association of Broadcasters stifle satellite radio. I am a huge fan of radio. I listen to AM and FM all day long. I just recently bought myself an XM satellite radio, but I still listen to the local radio as well.

While XM doesn't currently offer traffic and weather in my area (Colorado Springs, Colorado), I am offended by the NAB's attempts to stifle innovation and competition.

--

Phillip H. Blanton